Cop-out to Mr. Irvin, Unit Manager

from Theodore John Kaczynski 04475-046

Some time ago I sent you a cop-out about the fact that the officers who sit outside my window to watch me <sup>at night</sup> often have their radios turned up loud. After that there was a great improvement. However, the problem has recently begun to come back. For example, on the night of March 8-9 the officer had his radio turned up loud.

Ramzi Yousef also has complained to me about being awakened at night by the officer's radio.

Your Concern is again noted and we will take steps to address the noise level.

Would you please explain to me what is going on and why I can't get phone calls? And would you please fix the problem, so that I can have a phone call next Sunday, May 20, at 10:30 AM? Thank you.

I would like to have permission to purchase a hardcover educational book, namely, the Collins Spanish-English, English-Spanish Dictionary, compiled by Colin Smith. There is a paperback version of this dictionary, but it is greatly abridged, and it does not have most of the vitally important information about the idiomatic use of words and phrases that the hardcover version has. As far as I know, there is no paperback dictionary that is comparable to the hardcover Collins Spanish-English dictionary.

Is the problem with my telephone service fixed yet? I have to make an important call on Thursday, August 1, and I won't be able to make it if the telephone problem is not fixed.

You will recall that the problem is that when I dial 118 + my PAC number in order to transfer funds from my commissary account to my ITS account, I just get a busy signal. So I can't put any funds on my ITS account.

However, today they only gave us 54 minutes of rec time. I told the officer we were supposed to get an hour and a half, and he said no, only an hour for indoor rec.

Please get this problem straightened out. Thank you.

On May 14, I was moved to a different cell, Cell A 108, D Unit, Range O-1. The TV in this cell cannot be used because it lacks a coaxial cable. During the 9 days since May 14, I have submitted numerous cop-outs and made numerous oral requests to staff to have the coaxial cable put on the TV. I have been told repeatedly that the Facilities Dept. has been informed of the problem. But no one has explained to me why the cable still has not been put on the TV. It appears the Facilities Dept. will never fix this problem until instructed by someone who has authority. Therefore I request that you instruct the Facilities Dept. to put the coaxial cable on my TV promptly. Thank you.

Register Number: 04475-046

Unit: D

This is in response to your Inmate Request to Staff Member ("Cop-out") received in this office on August 5, 2002. Specifically, you state you received spoiled milk. You request for a replacement carton.

An investigation of the issues raised in your Inmate Request to Staff Member ("Cop-out") has been conducted. The results of the investigation reveal every effort is made to serve fresh milk. Milk is kept under the proper temperatures and rotated properly. The policy of the ADX Food Service Department is not to replace an item after the fact. The procedure at the ADX if this or any food service issue ever arises again is to bring it to the immediate attention of the number 1 Unit Officer. The Officer and Food Service staff will make every effort to correct the problem immediately. You may discuss any additional issues with the food service staff during our weekly rounds.

I trust this addresses your concerns.

There is a chronic problem with the inmates' telephone service. When I call my friend, I can hear her just fine, but she says the reception on her end is so bad that she can't understand what I am saying unless I talk very slowly and very loud.

She says there is a kind of crackling sound and my voice keeps cutting in and out.

This has been going on for a long time, but it seems to be getting worse. In the call I made today, 1/11/04, it was worse than ever.

Does the D-Unit team want to handle this for me, or should I send a cop-out directly to Inmate Services?

Handled
The D-Unit team actually handled this cop-out. Collins explained to me that the D-Unit team had made some kind of mistake and that the commissary slips to the wrong place and they had been sent over to one of the other prisons. As a result we never got our commissary orders that week.

Some of the food here is so heavily loaded with salt that it makes the inmate feel sick to eat it.

There is no reason why any salt at all should be added to the food. The inmates are provided with salt in their condiment bag, so they can salt the food to suit their own taste.

But if Food Services does put salt in the food, the salt should be added in measured, moderate quantities. Food Services employees should not add salt to the food indiscriminately, as apparently they sometimes do.

16. INSTITUTIONAL ADJUSTMENT: Kaczynski was an initial commitment to this institution upon sentencing in the Eastern District of California which occurred on May 5, 1998.
- A. Program Plan: Kaczynski arrived at ADX Florence on May 5, 1998. During his Initial and Subsequent Program Reviews the Unit Team has recommended participation in Adult Continuing Education courses, maintaining clear conduct, maintaining a high level of cell sanitation, utilize recreational opportunities, participate in the Inmate Financial Responsibility Program, and establishing a working relationship with staff. He is making positive progress as he has maintained clear conduct, has good cell sanitation, has participated in FRP, (currently on TEMP EXEMPT due to lack of funds), utilizes recreation when offered and has positive rapport with staff.
  - B. Work Assignments: He has been unassigned since his arrival due to lack of jobs available.
  - C. Educational/Vocational Participation: He arrived to this institution with a High School Diploma, and Doctorate Degree in Mathematics. It has been recommended to him to participate in the Adult Continuing Education courses over the closed circuit television system, however, to date he has no participation in these courses.
  - D. Counseling Programs: Due to the unique mission of this facility, group counseling is not offered. However, he has completed four programs to date that are offered over the closed circuit television system which are offered by the Psychology Department. These courses are Commitment to Change (1999) - 2 hours, Independent Study (2000) - 2 hours, Independent Study (2000) - 2 hours, and another Independent Study in 2001 for 9 hours. He is seen on a daily basis by the Psychology Department staff and his unit team.
  - E. Incident Reports: Kaczynski has maintained clear conduct while at this facility and also while on pre-trial status pending trial.
  - F. Institutional Movement: Kaczynski was housed at FCI Dublin as a holdover during the period of his trial. On May 5, 1998, he was designated to ADX Florence with no further movement.
  - G. Physical and Mental Health: Due to his medical condition, Kaczynski is not permitted to work.
  - H. Financial Responsibility: Upon sentencing in the Eastern District of California, Kaczynski received financial obligation to include a $650.00 Felony Assessment and $15,026,000.00 in restitution. He is currently in TEMP EXEMPT status due to lack of funds available at the present time. However, he has participated in the past since his arrival with a balance owed of $450.00 on the assessment, and full balance on the restitution.
17. RELEASE PLANNING: Kaczynski was sentenced in the Eastern District of California. His PSI lists his legal residence in Lincoln, Montana. As the inmate is serving a LIFE sentence, release plans have not been formulated at this time.

I have no idea what this "medical condition" could be. I run 5 miles a day, 4 or 5 days a week, so I ought to be fit to work. But if they don't want me to work that's fine with me, since I have too much to keep me busy as it is. - TJK 5/3/03 third time to get some water, but again the hawk prevented his drinking. He was furious and drew his sword. He yelled at the hawk, "This will be your last mistake if you try it again!" He filled the cup once more and began to lift it to his lips. Once again the hawk began to swoop down toward the cup, but this time the king was ready for him. With an angry slash of his sword he struck down the hawk in mid-flight. As the hawk lay dying on the ground the king said spitefully, "That's what you get for your trouble!" His cup had fallen from his hand into a crevice in the rocks. He couldn't reach it. He decided he would have to climb the steep rocks to get to the spring above in order to satisfy his thirst. The climb was arduous and he became even more thirsty. At last he reached the spring and there in the pool of water was the most poisonous snake in the country laying dead. The sight stopped the king in his tracks. He forgot his thirst. His only thoughts were of the dead hawk down below. "The hawk saved my life" he cried, "and how did I repay him? He was my best friend and I killed him. I have learned a sad lesson today: never do anything in anger."

There are many ways we can apply this to our lives, just about any aspect of daily life. Consider these:

"Do not make friends with a hot-tempered man, do not associate with one easily angered, or you may learn his ways and get yourself ensnared" (Prov. 22:24). "A fool gives full vent to his anger, but a wise man keeps himself under control" (Prov. 29:11). "An angry man stirs up dissension, and a hot-tempered one commits many sins" (Prov. 29:22). "For as churning the milk produces butter, and as twisting the nose produces blood, so stirring up anger produces strife" (Prov. 30:33). "Love is not easily angered, it keeps no record of wrongs" (1 Cor. 13:5). "In your anger do not sin. Do not let the sun go down while you are still angry" (Eph. 4:26). "Everyone should be quick to listen, slow to speak and slow to become angry, for man's anger does not bring about the righteous life that God desires" (Jms. 1:19-20).

May the Lord help us all as we deal with those little or big seeds of anger in our lives. May we not "kill" the hawks around us!!

Genghis Khan (1162-1227) was a mighty king and warrior, considered equal to Alexander the Great. His Mongol empire reached from the Sea of Japan all the way to eastern Europe. One morning when Genghis Khan was home from the wars, he rode out into the woods for a day of hunting. On the king's wrist sat his favorite hawk which had been trained to hunt. The day was quite hot and the king grew very thirsty. His hawk had flown off, probably in search of water, the king thought.

A drought had made water scarce and he search long and hard trying to locate a stream. He finally located what was usually a swift stream, now reduced to a drop at a time flowing down over the edge of a high rock. The thirsty king grabbed his silver cup from his saddle bag and ran to the dripping water. It took quite a while to fill the cup. At long last the cup was almost full and he raised it to his lips for that long awaited drink. Suddenly, there was a whirring sound above his head and the cup was knocked from his hands. The king looked up with anger and saw that it was his hawk that had spilled the water all over the ground. The hawk flew back and forth and then landed on the rock high above the water.

The king once again began the slow process of filling the cup. When it was only half full, he could wait no longer. As he lifted it to his lips, the hawk again swooped down, knocking the cup from his hands. His anger growing, he tried a

THE CHAPLAIN'S CORNER

* "For the times, they are a changing...." So goes the song and so goes things in the BOP across the nation. There is a new Religious Beliefs and Practices program statement which has to be implemented by the end of March. The budget cutbacks continue to have an impact on all of us as well. So, here are some of the things that are happening here:

* Good news...the budget finally passed and we have some money to spend in our department. If you know of books or videos (only religious ones) that would be good to add to our various religious sections, please send us a list.

* Our T.V. programming is changing. We are now on Channel 19. We will only be able to show videos that are religious in nature. Thankfully, this comes just as all those new channels have been added to your system. It has been our blessing to provide quality movies over the years ..glad that you were able to enjoy them. So, by the end of March, our programming will be totally religious.

* The Chapel book library is also changing with the removal of all non-religious books. These should still be available to you through the education library.

* We continue to give out the cards until they are all gone. We no longer have any thinking of you type cards. We still have birthday, get well, condolence, and anniversary cards left.

* Headwear will be standardized throughout the BOP. The same kufis, yarmulkes, crowns, and bandanas will be used everywhere. These will be sold in the commissary when they come in.

* The Religious Services departments of the complex will be officially consolidated. The complex used to have seven chaplains and we currently have three chaplains for the 4 institutions. There is not a set date for the completion of this consolidation, but it should be soon.

* For the Muslims, we are trying so very hard to bring on board an Imam for the Complex. It has been a slow process, but we have Central Office doing everything they can to assist us. Until that happens, if you have religious questions for an Imam, please send them to us and we will forward them over the computer to an Imam. He then sends the answers back to us and we send them on to you.

* With all that said...our prayers are with you. Please pray for us as well. God's blessings to you!!!

Thank you for Praying!

WORTH PONDERING

There is a holy anger, excited by zeal, which moves us to reprove with warmth those whom our mildness failed to correct.

—St. Jean Baptiste de la Salle, Les devoirs du chrétien, 1703

He who holds back rising anger like a rolling chariot, him I call a real driver; other people are but holding the reins.

—Dhammapada, c. 5th century B.C.

Reason opposes evil the more effectively when anger ministers at her side.

—Pope St. Gregory the Great, Morals on the Book of Job, 584

God clearly cannot be angry—at least in the crude sense of being in a rage, and losing his temper and throwing things at people—for to suffer such anger is limitation, and God is unlimited.

—Christopher Hollis, The Noble Castle, 1941

A soft answer turns away wrath, but a harsh word stirs up anger.

—Holy Bible, Proverbs 15:1

He who is slow to anger has great understanding, but he who has a hasty temper exalts folly.

—Holy Bible, Proverbs 14:29

Let not the sun go down on your anger.

—Holy Bible, Ephesians 4:26

You have heard that it was said to the men of old, "You shall not kill; and whoever kills shall be liable to judgment." But I say to you that every one who is angry with his brother shall be liable to judgment; whoever insults his brother shall be liable to the council, and whoever says, "You fool!" shall be liable to the hell of fire.

—Holy Bible, Matthew 5:21-22

As long as anger lives, she continues to be the fruitful mother of many unhappy children.

—St. John Climacus (525–600), Climax

He is a fool who cannot be angry; but he is a wise man who will not.

—Proverb

Anger deprives a sage of his wisdom, a prophet of his vision.

—Simeon, b. Lakish, Talmud, c. 500

It is a universal poison of an infinite object; for no man was ever so amorous as to love a toad, none so envious as to repine at a condition of the miserable, no man so timorous as to fear a dead bee; but anger is troubled at every thing, and every man, and every accident.

—Jeremy Taylor, Holy Living, 1650

"Black grace." An influx of extraordinary powers, an almost infinite growth of energy, can be observed in angry men.

—Alexander Yelchaninov (1881–1934), Fragments of a Diary

Dear Mr. Kaczynski:

This responds to your letter to the Consumer Advocate reporting that your package has not been delivered to its destination.

We regret learning of the situation you outlined in your letter. Certainly, such a report is not good news to us and does not reflect the service we want to provide to you. We are always concerned when a customer has had an experience that does not meet their expectations.

We realize your situation will require the knowledge of management officials overseeing the Post Offices in your service area. Accordingly, I have forwarded the information to your local Consumer Affairs Office for appropriate action. Please understand referral does not reduce the scope of the review. The managers who will receive your inquiry are those with both the authority and responsibility to ensure their local customer's issues are addressed.

To discuss this or any future Postal related issues, please feel free to contact the Consumer Affairs Office at 7500 E 53rd Place, Room 2214, Denver, CO 80266-9631; Phone: 303-853-6070, as they have the ability to respond to local issues in a timely and efficient manner.

We appreciate and thank you for writing and bringing this matter to our attention.

Sincerely,

Incident Log

Security breach: On the evening of Nov 29, 1996, I had finished my running and my stretch exercises when the door of 7th floor West opened and 3 lady prisoners came up the stairs. When they saw me they laughed, said, "The Unabomber's out there!" and went back inside. I still had a few minutes of exercise time left, but instead of taking that time I went back inside so that the ladies could use the rec area. I'm so chivalrous!
